Your Album is a garden Plot
Where all your friends may see
So plant for me for-got me
To see if it will grow.

True Beauty

Beautiful hands are they that do
The work of the noble, good and true
Busy for them the long day through;
Beautiful faces - They that wear
The light of a pleasing spirit there,
It matters little if dark or fair;

And truly beautiful in God's sight
Are the precious souls, who love the right

A Recipe for Success.

To one piece of dark parajya add a little moonlight, take for granted two people, Press in two strong hands one soft one, Lift lightly two ounces of attraction, + one of romance. add a large measure of folly. Stir in a floating rattle + one or two whispers. Deserve half-a-dozen glances in a well of silence, dust in a small quantity of hesitation, one ounce of resistance, two ounces of yielding. place the mixture on a flushed cheek, or two lips. Flourish with a sigh + set aside to cool. This will succeed in any climate if directions are carefully followed.

Influence.

You never can tell when you send a word,

Like an arrow shot from a bow
By an archer blind be it evil or kind
Not where it may choose to go.

It may pierce the breast of your dearest
Friend
Tipped with its poison or balm,
To a stranger's heart in life's great heart,
It may carry its pain or its calm.

You never can tell when you do a act
Just what the result will be.

For in every deed you are sowing a seed
Though its harvest you may not see
Each kindly act is an acorn dropped.

In God's productive soil,
Though you may not know
Yet the tree shall grow & shelter
The browe that toil.
